

Assignment Overview

Appendix D: Micro-Teach Lesson

Topic: Grade 9 Health Matt F.

Assessment Rubric:

4. Teaching Skills and Attributes	Not Meeting Expectations	Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
The ED 2500 student will be able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> demonstrate skills and attributes required to become an effective teacher; reflect critically and analytically on his/her teaching and learning experiences; and communicate effectively, verbally, non-verbally, and in writing. 		✓
j) plan effectively for instruction.		✓
k) organize instruction effectively. count off for groups			✓
l) provide clear direction and instruction.			✓
m) engage peers in effective learning using appropriate instructional approaches.			✓
n) monitor and respond appropriately to peers during instruction (questions, behavior, etc.). lots in several occasions you asked questions			✓
o) self-assess the effectiveness of own teaching.			✓
p) communicate verbally effectively (tone, volume, expressiveness, grammar, language, etc.). this is a strength for engagement			✓
q) communicate non-verbally effectively (gestures, expressions, eye contact, congruence between verbal and non-verbal communication, etc.).			✓
r) communicate in writing effectively (handwriting, spelling, punctuation, grammar, syntax, word choice, etc.).			✓
→ appropriate to the topic, wasn't able to observe N/A

5. Personal/Professional Attributes	Not Meeting Expectations	Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
The ED 2500 student will be able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> demonstrate skills and attributes required to become an effective teacher.
a) demonstrate a dynamic presence (e.g. alertness, 'with-it-ness', enthusiasm, passion).		✓	✓
b) demonstrate flexible thinking and consider issues from multiple perspectives.		✓	✓
c) demonstrate confidence, composure, and poise.		✓	✓
d) participate in and contribute to seminar activities in a positive and collaborative manner.		✓	✓
e) demonstrate critical and analytical thinking skills.		✓	✓
f) demonstrate creativity (e.g. instructional approaches, discussion, reflection, etc.).			✓
g) show maturity in judgment.			✓
h) demonstrate commitment to and interest in teaching.			✓
i) show leadership and initiative through active involvement of self and with others.			✓

*Sense of humor and light demand very effective
A Fun and EFFECTIVE LESSON.*